Mississippi Independent Knights of the KKK) and Larry Howard Walker, fired about 20 rounds of ammunition from carbine rifles into the office of black newspaper, Jackson Advocate, in a black business district in downtown Jackson, Mississippi, United States. No one was injured as the office was unoccupied at the time of the shooting, just after midnight, but there was minor damage to windows, office equipment and furniture. This incident had racial motivations, and came in the midst of similar shootings of black newspapers including this one in previous months. Both perpetrators were arrested for the attack. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 7

 America Puerto Rico Rio Piedras 18.386932 -66.061127 1.0 0 02/21/1982: Two bombs exploded at the administration building at the University of Puerto Rico campus in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, shattering a window. There were no casualties and no damages were reported in the incident, which was claimed by a group calling itself the Antonia Martinez Student Commandos (AMSC). The Associated Press received a communiqué after the explosion, telling students to form military and clandestine groups to fight police repression and American imperialism. The bombing occurred to protest tuition increases at the University and two days prior to this incident, a riot broke out with student groups protesting the tuition hikes and clashing with police. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 8 Educational Institution 49.0 School/University/Educational

 1.0 0 room 323 at hotel 05/20/1982: An attempted bombing occurred at the Caribe Hilton Hotel in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Los Macheteros were responsible for the attack, in which they sent a warning to a switchboard operator of the hotel that four bombs were planted in the building. Although four plastic containers were found, all four of the bombs failed to detonate due to the malfunction of the mechanical initiator which failed to ignite the gasoline in the containers. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 0 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 1 Business 8.0 Hotel/Resort suburban Northridge community in San Fernando Valley, about 24 miles northwest of Los Angeles

05/27/1982: A molotov cocktail was thrown and exploded at the front door of the Northridge home of Dr. George Ashley in San Fernando Valley, just 24 miles northwest of Los Angeles, California, United States. Dr. Ashley was a high school teacher in the Sun Valley area of L.A. and an advisor at the Institute for Historical Review, a private research organization in Torrance, California, which has maintained that the Holocaust never occurred. No one was injured in the incident, but the blast caused about $1,000 in property damage. The perpetrators are unknown, but are suspected to be Jewish. A call was made to the Associated Press after the incident but much of it was incomprehensible; however, past calls claiming responsibility for attacks on Ashley's home were made in the name of "Jewish Defenders." Additionally, before the explosion, Ashley had received warning calls stating "We will burn you alive with your family and give you a good Jewish lesson." 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 7 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 14 Private Citizens & Property 77.0 Laborer (General)/Occupation Identified Dr. George Ashley, high school teacher and advisor at the Institute for Historical Review Dr. George Ashley, high school teacher and advisor at the Institute for Historical Review 217.0 United States Jewish Extremists Ashley had argued that accounts of Nazi genocide against Jews during World War II are exaggerated, and he worked the Institute for Historical Review, an organization that believed that the Holocaust never occurred. 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 1.0 2.0 Call (post-incident) 8 Incendiary 19.0 Molotov Cocktail/Petrol Bomb molotov cocktail 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) 1000.0 The incident occurred at about 1:50am.  18.380782 -65.957387 1.0 0 3 at residence building 06/10/1982: Armed Forces for Popular Resistance (FARP) bombed the Marbella Condominium in Isla Verde in Carolina, Puerto Rico. Two of three bombs detonated successfully, and a third was located by police and rendered safe before it exploded. One high-order explosive was placed in front of the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (PREPA) transformers, causing extensive damage, and the second detonated on the fourth floor. There were no casualties in this incident. The group's motive was to displace families from their homes by way of evacuation, specifically the family of the Secretary of Housing for Puerto Rico, in order to invoke the feeling that families had when forcibly removed from Villa Sin Miedo (Villa Without Fear). 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 14 Private Citizens & Property 76.0

No casualties resulted from the incident; however, there was minor damage in the form of shattering glass of the front doorway. The bomb was thrown from a vehicle and exploded when it hit the ground in front of the consulate. Authorities attribute the incident to the Jewish Defense League (JDL) as a member claiming to be from the JDL called the press and claimed responsibility for the attack; however, the spokesperson for the JDL had initially denied the group's involvement. This incident is linked to the bombing of the Lebanese Consulate the same day, only minutes after the attack on the French Consulate (198207050001) for which the JDL was also responsible. 1 1 1 0.0 1.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 7 Government (Diplomatic) 46.0 Embassy/Consulate French Consulate French Consulate General in New York 69.0 France Jewish Defense League (JDL) Unknown 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 1.0 2.0 Call (post-incident) 6 Explosives 31.0 Pipe Bomb 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 glass shattered Incident occurred at 9:10pm; authorities attribute incident to the Jewish Defense League (JDL) as a member claiming to be from the JDL called the press and claimed responsibility for the attack; however, the spokesperson for the JDL had initially denied the group's involvement.  North America Hawaii Honolulu 21.306944 -157.858333 1.0 1 Over international waters, on rout from Tokyo to Honolulu, during final descent. 8/11/1982: A bomb exploded on Pan Am Flight 830 traveling from Tokyo, Japan to Honolulu, Hawaii. The explosive was hidden under a seat by Mohammed Rashid, a member of the 15 May organization, on the previous flight into Tokyo. During the descent into Honolulu the bomb detonated, killing a 15-year-old Japanese boy and wounding 15 others. The bomb also blew a 1-by-3 foot hole in the floor of the plane. The bomb did not damage the structural integrity of the aircraft and the pilot was able to safely land in Honolulu shortly after the explosion. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 6 Airports & Aircraft

 America Illinois Edwardsville 38.813372 -89.956805 1.0 0 8/13/1982: Donald Benny Anderson, Matthew Moore and Wayne Moore kidnapped Dr. Hector Zevallos and his wife Rosalie Jean from their home in Edwardsville, Illinois, United States. Dr. Zevallos was the director of the Hope Clinic for Women in nearby Granite City, Illinois. The perpetrators, claiming to be part of the Army of God, demanded that President Ronald Reagan denounce abortion as a requirement for the release of the doctor and his wife. Eight days after the original kidnapping, Hector and Rosalie Zevallos were freed unharmed. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 6 Hostage Taking (Kidnapping) released by perpetrators Donald Benny Anderson and Mathew Moore carried out attacks at three abortion clinics in the two months before this incident (198205290002, 198205290003, and 198206060005). Dr. Zevallos and his wife were held in the basement of an abandoned National Guard munitions bunker. The perpetrators forced Dr. Zevallos to make two calls to Federal authorities in which Zevallos directed the Feds to an audiotape in a park in St. Louis that stated the Army of God's message to President Reagan. Dr. Zevallos was able to convince his abductors to let him go free by claiming that he would close the abortion facility. The Hope Clinic for Women had previously been the target of many protests. "Untitled," Associated Press, August

The bomb, which was taped to the front of the store and made of a bottle filled with black powder and covered with cloth, only partially exploded causing a flash and minor damage. There were no casualties in the incident, for which Omega 7 claimed responsibility in a communiqué left at the scene. The bookstore was targeted because it was selling communist literature. A man who was fleeing the scene as the bomb exploded was arrested for the incident and claimed he was the perpetrator. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 1 Business 7.0 Retail/Grocery/Bakery Roxy Record and Book Company bookstore selling communist literature 217.0 United States Omega-7 Bookstore was selling communist literature. 0.0 0 1.0 1.0 1.0 5.0 Note left at scene 6 Explosives 17.0 Other Explosive Type bomb was composed of a bottle filled with black powder and covered with cloth 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 Incident occurred at 2:00am; male perpetrator claimed responsibility for the blast and left communiqué at scene that Omega 7 was responsible "FBI Analysis of Terrorist Incidents in the United States: 1982," Terrorist Research and Analytical Center, Terrorism Section, Criminal Investigative Division, FBI, DOJ, 1982. The explosion blew out two walls of the sixth floor stairway and a door. There was one person in the office at the time of the blast, but the individual was able to escape uninjured, and there were no casualties in the incident. The perpetrators are unknown; however, after the blast, an anonymous female caller told United Press International that the bombing was "because the JDL are the real terrorists" and "Long live the Palestinians." 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 17 Terrorists/Non-State Militia 93.0 Terrorist Jewish Defense League JDL offices in Manhattan, New York 217.0 United States Unknown Perpetrators believed JDL were the real terrorists and supported the Palestinians 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 1.0 2.0 Call (post-incident) 6 Explosives 17.0 Other Explosive Type bomb made of "high-grade" explosive material 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 blast damaged two walls and a door Incident occurred at 11:45pm. The headquarters were demolished in the explosion. Early counts indicated that only 15 people were killed; however, over several days, that number rose to 89 casualties. Two groups, Armed Struggle Organization and Military Command of the Lebanese Resistance, claimed responsibility for the incident but authorities suspect the involvement of Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO). 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 1 3 Bombing/Explosion 4 Military 27.0 Military Barracks/Base/Headquarters/Checkpost Israeli military An Israeli military headquarters located on the outskirts of Tyre 97.0 Israel Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) Armed Struggle Organization Lebanese Resistance Group Specific motive is unknown; however, the site of the attack had been a PLO headquarters until the Israeli invasion. 1.0 1.0 1.0 0 -99.0 0.0 1.0 10.0 Unknown 1.0 1.0 Letter 1.0 1.0 Letter 1.0 6 Explosives 15.0 Vehicle 90.0 0.0 1.0 0.0 0.0 1 4.0 Unknown The military headquarters were destroyed 0.0 Two different groups claimed responsibility for the incident; however, authorities do not trust the validity of the claims and think the PLO are responsible instead. Ten minutes later, a Wells Fargo armored truck arrived at the supermarket. The Macheteros held one of the truck drivers at gunpoint and forced him to give up the keys to the cash vault stored in the truck. Simultaneously, a white van with two more Macheteros members arrived at the scene and the money was transferred into the vehicle. $12,000 was stolen from the supermarket and $300,000 was stolen from the armored truck. During this incident, some members of the Macheteros got into a confrontation with the owner of a gas station adjacent to the supermarket. When the owner of the gas station attempted to brandish his gun he was shot and killed. 1 0 1 0.0 2.0 Other Crime Type 0.0 1 0 5 Hostage Taking (Barricade Incident) 1 Business 3.0 Bank/Commerce Wells Fargo Bank Wells Fargo armored truck in Puerto Rico 163.0 Puerto Rico 1.0 Business 7.0 Retail/Grocery/Bakery Supermarket Supermarket in Carolina, Puerto Rico 163.0 Puerto Rico Macheteros To steal money to fund the Macheteros' revolutionary struggle to force the United States out of Puerto Rico. 0.0 0 6.0 -99.0 -9.0 10.0 Unknown 5 Firearms 3.0 Handgun handguns 1.0 1.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) 312000.0 money stolen 1.0 1.0 1.0 0.25 0.0 This incident began around 8:50 AM. There were no casualties in the incident, but the amount of property damage is unknown. The perpetrators are suspected to be Jewish terrorists, but no group claimed responsibility or was conclusively identified. Ashley's home was also firebombed about six months prior to this incident, and then bombed again in 1985, along with many threatening phone calls from Jews that he received over the three years between the two bombings and even prior to the first one. 1 1 1 1.0 2.0 Other Crime Type 0.0 1 0 7 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 14 Private Citizens & Property 77.0 Laborer (General)/Occupation Identified Dr. George Ashley, high school teacher and advisor at the Institute for Historical Review Dr. George Ashley, high school teacher and advisor at the Institute for Historical Review 217.0 United States Jewish Extremists Ashley had argued that accounts of Nazi genocide against Jews during World War II are exaggerated, and he worked the Institute for Historical Review, an organization that believed that the Holocaust never occurred. 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 0.0 11 Sabotage Equipment perpetrators broke into home and vandalized property including spray-painting walls 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 0.0 On December 22, Mordechai Levy, leader of the Jewish Defense Organization (which is unrelated to the JDL) was arrested for investigation into the vandalism of Ashley's home; however, Levy claimed he had an alibi and was in New York on December 2, and that he was being framed and had the flight tickets and receipts to prove it. Additionally, on December 22, Irving Rubin, leader of the Jewish Defense League, was arrested on charges of making telephone threats against Ashley, when Rubin called him at his home after the May firebombing and after the vandalism earlier in December. However, Rubin claimed they had a cordial conversation in which Rubin told Ashley that all he had to do was publicly apologize to the Jewish community, and they would leave him alone. Rubin was later released on bail. In addition to this vandalism incident, Ashley's home was firebombed two times by Jewish terrorists, once in May 1982 (198205270004), and then again in May 1985. The pipe bomb was recovered and removed by police before it detonated. There was no property damage, nor injuries. An anonymous caller phone the New York Post, claiming to be from the group United Jewish Underground, and claimed responsibility for placing the bomb under what was believed to be a Soviet diplomat's car, which was parked a block and a half from the Soviet mission to the UN. The caller told the Post to free Soviet dissident Anatoly Scharansky, who had been jailed. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 0 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 7 Government (Diplomatic) 47.0 International Organization (peacekeeper, aid agency, compound) Soviet Mission to UN car, with diplomatic license plates, believed to have belonged to Soviet diplomat 359.0 Soviet Union United Jewish Underground To protest the confinement of and demand the release of jailed Soviet dissident, Anatoly Scharansky 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 1.0 2.0 Call (post-incident) 6 Explosives 31.0 Pipe Bomb 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0

33.83276 -117.915719 1.0 0 9 at bakery 01/21/1983: Unknown perpetrators planted nine bombs at the Golden Jack Bakery, a Middle Eastern bakery, which sells Armenian and Lebanese breads, in Anaheim, California, United States. Authorities discovered the pipe bombs, which were made of highly volatile, smokeless powder and strung together with wires, when they were called to a fire at the bakery, which was set off by a battery-powered device. It is suspected that the arson and the bombs were linked. All of the bombs were removed and deactivated, and there were no injuries in this incident, but the extent of property damage from the fire is unknown. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 7.0 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 1 Business 7.0 Retail/Grocery/Bakery Golden Jack Bakery Golden Jack Bakery, a Middle-Eastern bakery in Anaheim, California 217.0 United States Unknown Unknown 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 0.0 6 Explosives 31.0 Pipe Bomb 8.0 Incendiary 18.0 Arson/Fire a fire was set, and nine pipe bombs made of highly volatile smokeless powder and strung together with wire were planted 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 -9 the bombs did not detonate, but the fire may have caused damage 0.0 Authorities believed the fire to be arson, started by a battery-operated device, and connected to the bombs. Is suspected the bakery was targeted because of selling Armenian and Lebanese breads, and that the explosives were made in the Soviet Union. During the incident, Kholya held hostage the 21 other passengers and crew members on the plane, and only released them after diverting the plane to land in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, once Kholya made a deal with Mexican officials for a plane ticket to Cuba in exchange for the release of the passengers. All the hostages were released unharmed. Kholya's motivation for hijacking the plane was because he was opposed to U.S. policy towards Iran and he wanted to make Americans aware of the conditions in Iran. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 4 Hijacking 6 Airports & Aircraft 42.0 Aircraft (not at an airport) Rio Airways Rio Airways Flight 252 departing from Killeen, Texas, en route to Dallas 217.0 United States Iranian extremists To protest United States policy towards Iran. 0.0 1 1.0 1.0 5 Firearms 2.0

Dallas, and landed in Nuevo Laredo at about 11:45am. Kholya, who was reportedly a former Iranian air force pilot, claimed he had a bomb and threatened to blow up the aircraft, which was a de Havilland-7, a four-engine, 48-passenger turboprop. Additionally, Kholya had a statement with him on the plane, which stated that 26,000 Iranians "have been killed for no cause." The passengers were freed in two groups; six passengers were released just after the plane landed in Nuevo Laredo and the remaining 15 hostages were let go just before the gunman boarded the Mexican jet. Kholya requested a flight to Cuba, but he was taken to police headquarters in Mexico pending his extradition to the United States. His extradition could not be arranged; he was being charged with air piracy, kidnapping and carrying a firearm without a permit. "FBI Analysis of

Mitchell was bombed in a parking lot in front of an exclusive apartment complex in San Antonio, Texas, United States. There were no casualties, but Mitchell's Cadillac was destroyed and surrounding vehicles were damaged. An unknown male claimed this incident for the Republic of Revolutionary (RPR). However, an FBI investigation could not discover any information about what the RPR was or any possible motives behind the attack. 1 1 1 1.0 2.0 Other Crime Type 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 14 Private Citizens & Property 68.0 Named Civilian Car belonging to John K. In a one hour period after the bombing, the security office of the apartment complex received three calls from an unknown male believed to be Latin American. The caller stated, "I take responsibility for the bomb for Republic of Revolutionary. Do not call police, sniper is in back and will kill anyone in uniform." Authorities believe that this incident was linked to the bombing Congressman Bill Archer's car in San Antonio one week later. (198303200010) Both incidents used similar bomb materials and occurred a few blocks away from each other. There were no casualties but Archer's Chevrolet Camaro was destroyed. Authorities could not establish a motive for this incident but were confident that Archer himself was not targeted and that the car was only bombed because it had Congressional licence plates. 1 1 1 1.0 2.0 Other Crime Type 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 2 Government (General) 15.0 Politician or Political Party Movement/Meeting/Rally Car belonging to a United States Congressman 217.0 United States Unknown 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 0.0 6 Explosives 16.0 Unknown Explosive Type Bomb placed between trunk and gas tank of vehicle 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) Vehicle destroyed 0.0 0.0 The bomb detonated at 12:52 AM. Authorities did not believe Congressman Archer was specifically target because he had never been to San Antonio. Moreover, his son and daughter were using the car at the time. Despite the fact that no one claimed this attack, authorities suspected that this incident was linked to the bombing oilman John Mitchell's car in San Antonio one week earlier. No casualties resulted from the incident, which was claimed by the United Freedom Front (UFF). About twenty-five minutes before the explosion, an anonymous female claiming to speak for the UFF called the Middle Earth Crisis, warning of the bomb, and a similar call was made to the Dunkin Donuts near the reserve center. The device was placed in an attach case and labeled "bomb, explosive." This incident is linked to the bombing of the U.S. Naval Army Reserve in Queens, New York less than two hours later, also by the UFF (198305130007). 1 1 1 0.0 1.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 4 Military 27.0 Military Barracks/Base/Headquarters/Checkpoint Roosevelt Army Reserve Center army reserve center 217.0 United States United Freedom Front (UFF) Unknown 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 1.0 10.0 Unknown 6 Explosives 28.0 Dynamite/TNT four sticks of dynamite placed inside attach case 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 extensive glass and structural damage 0.0 Explosion occurred at 11:00pm. Summit 44.638056 -123.5775 1.0 0 on land owned by Starker Forest Inc., about one mile from Summit, in the Coast Range, in western Benton county 06/05/1983: Unknown perpetrators torched logging equipment, owned by Gassner Logging Company, which was located on land owned by Starker Forest Inc., just one mile outside of Summit, Oregon in the United States. The heavy equipment, which included a front loader, was to be used for spraying herbicides. The fire caused over $82,000 in damages, but there were no casualties in the incident. Next to the burned equipment, the perpetrators wrote on a shed, "No spray. You spray, you pay. You kill, we will." 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 7 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 1 Business 5.0 Industrial/Textiles/Factory Gassner Logging Company logging equipment owned by Gassner Logging Company 217.0 United States 1.0 Business 5.0 Industrial/Textiles/Factory Starker Forest Inc. shed on land owned by Starker Forest Inc. 217.0 United States Unknown To protest the use of herbicides 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 0.0 8 Incendiary 18.0 Arson/Fire 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) 82000.0 Front-end loader worth $70,000-$80,000 was destroyed along with damage to a log skidder, a tractor, and a bridge, and punctured tires in a trailer, totaling about another $12,000 in damages 0.0 0.0 "Equipment Burning Latest Incident In Dispute Over Herbicides," Associated Press, June 8, 1983. The arson was set by using a petroleum-based liquid mixed with motor oil or diesel fuel, and though the perpetrators are unknown, the Ku Klux Klan is suspected to be responsible for the attack as the Center had several legal cases pending against the KK and the organization is home to Klanwatch, a group that monitors activities of the KKK, educates the public and leads litigation. Additionally, the arson was set specifically to the office of the director of Klanwatch, Randall Williams. There were no injuries in the incident. 1 1 1 1.0 2.0 Other Crime Type 0.0 1 0 7 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 12 NGO 61.0 Domestic NGO Southern Poverty Law Center Southern Poverty Law Center 217.0 United States Ku Klux Klan Uncertain; however, it is suspected that the KKK was responsible for the arson because the Southern Poverty Law Center was home to Klanwatch, a group that monitored activities of the KKK, and the Center also had several legal cases pending against the KKK in federal courts. 1.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 0.0 8 Incendiary 18.0 Arson/Fire petroleum-based liquid (possibly gasoline) was used with motor oil or diesel fuel to set fire in four corners of the building 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 damage to walls, doors, floors, computer equipment, books, and files 0.0 This could have been a purely criminal act if it was merely out of revenge, or some other personal reason.  America Oregon Portland 45.511795 -122.675629 1.0 0 07/29/1983: Three bombs exploded at the downtown Hotel Rajneesh, owned by followers of Indian guru, Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, in Portland, Oregon, United States. The explosions caused an estimated $180,000 in damages to the four-story hotel and its contents, and seriously injured one of three perpetrators, Stephen Paster, who suffered injuries to both hands, both arms, his face and torso from the first bomb. The second and third explosions caused minor injury to a police officer on the scene who was treated for smoke inhalation. Paster, who was not part of the Rajneeshee sect, was charged and convicted of arson and sentenced to 20 years in prison. Authorities suspected that he was part of a Muslim sect, and the incident has been attributed to Jamaat-al-Fuqra by sources, but this is unclear. Police were also searching for two other perpetrators who were believed to also be responsible for the incident. 1 1 Rajneeshee group was not received well from the beginning of its presence in the US from India and the teachings of the sect stirred controversy; their request for permanent residency in the United States was met with much resistance. 1.0 0 1.0 1.0 0.0 6 Explosives 31.0 Pipe Bomb pipe bombs 0.0 0.0 0.0 2.0 1.0 1.0 1 3.0

 occurred at about 1:19am in the room of Stephen Paster, less than an hour after Paster had checked-in to the hotel; the second and third explosions happened about 90 minutes later, just before 3a.m. The perpetrator, Stephen Paster, had stayed at Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh's ranch and central commune, called Rajneeshpuram, about 150-200 miles away from the hotel in Oregon the night before the explosions. Additionally, he lodged at the ranch with two other men, who registered with the names "Robert D. Greenwood" and "Edward C.
 Lindsey," who were being sought by police as potential additional perpetrators in the hotel bombing. During Paster's trial for arson, authorities said they found a bomb factory and manuals describing the construction of homemade bombs and munitions at Paster's apartment in Los Angeles. The Rajneeshees had received death threats for months prior to this event, and there were violent acts and explosions against the group when members were in India as well. Anthony Kneidek, "Muslim sect may be involved in hotel bombing," United States, the Metropolitan Community Church, which had a homosexual congregation, was set on fire by the white supremacist group, the Covenant, Sword and the Arm of the Lord (CSA). No casualties resulted from the incident, and the damage was minimal, but included the charring of the front door. The perpetrators were identified as James D. Ellison, who was also the founder of CSA, and was eventually convicted and sentenced for the crime, and a former CSA member, William Thomas, who actually placed the gallon can of gasoline into the mail slot of the front door of the church, and ignited it.

William Thomas, former CSA member, was also indicted on similar charges for this incident. Both belonged to the CSA, and believed in the Christian Identity and that all minorities and other races were inferior to the white race; the group was anti-government and sought to start a holy war and overthrow the government through force by way of murder and sabotage; the group believed the Aryans were the chosen people and that the government was run by a Zionist occupation that had they had to bring down. Authorities suspect that the two set the fire, and then were trapped by their own arson when the rear door of the building failed to open, thus causing the men to die of smoke inhalation. When the fire was extinguished, the two bodies were found, along with two semi-automatic handguns, one of which was positively identified as the weapon used to assassinate AMI Secretary Dr. Mozaffar Ahmed on December 8.

Both of the suspected perpetrators were also linked to an attempted firebombing two hours after the assassination of Ahmed. The Federal Bureau of Investigation has attributed the arson, as well as the assassination of Ahmed to the group Jamaat al-Fuqra; however, this information has not been substantiated. No casualties resulted from the firebomb, which caused a small explosion, destroying and old Torah and burning a curtain. The perpetrators were identified as James D. Ellison, who was also the founder of CSA, and was eventually convicted and sentenced for the crime, and a former CSA member, William Thomas, who was also indicted for the crime. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 7 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 15 Religious Figures/Institutions 87.0 Affiliated Institution Beth Shalom Jewish Religious and Community Center Jewish religious and community center 217.0 United States Covenant, Sword and the Arm of the Lord (CSA) To terrorize minority groups, start a holy war, ultimately overthrow the government, which the CSA believed to be run by a Zionist occupation 0.0 0 2.0 2.0 0.0 8 Incendiary 19.0 Molotov Cocktail/Petrol Bomb firebomb 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 minor damage including the destruction of an old Torah and the burning of curtains 0.0 James Ellison was convicted under the Federal Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act for several arsons, including the arson of a church with a predominantly homosexual congregation six days prior to this incident, as well as other crimes, and received a 20-year prison sentence. William Thomas, former CSA member, was also indicted on similar charges for this incident. Both belonged to the CSA, and believed in the Christian Identity and that all minorities and other races were inferior to the white race; the group was anti-government and sought to start a holy war and overthrow the government through force by way of murder and sabotage; the group believed the Aryans were the chosen people and that the government was run by a Zionist occupation that they had to bring down. Ten minutes after the bombing, a local Spanish-speaking radio station received a call from a man claiming that Omega 7 planted the bombs because the owners were communists. There were no casualties in the fire and the blast caused minimal damage to the roof of the market, which was doused with gasoline and ignited by two homemade bombs. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 7.0 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 1 Business 7.0 Retail/Grocery/Bakery El Primer Titan Market Cuban supermarket 51.0 Cuba Omega-7 The owners of the supermarket were communists. 0.0 0 -99.0 -99.0 1.0 2.0 Call (post-incident) 6 Explosives 31.0 Pipe Bomb 8.0 Incendiary 19.0 Molotov Cocktail/Petrol Bomb pipe bomb and molotov cocktails 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) -99.0 minimal damage to the roof 0.0 Several Molotov cocktails did not explode; gasoline was poured over the roof and ignited with homemade bombs. Bauer, and Randolph Duey, robbed World Wide Video Store, a pornography video arcade shop in Spokane, Washington, United States. This was the first of many robberies for the group, and acted as the start to their anti-government, white supremacist revolution. The men, armed with pistols and knives, dressed in disguise and bound and gagged two store clerks with duct tape, before getting away with $369.10. 1 1 1 1.0 2.0 Other Crime Type 0.0 1 0 7 Facility/Infrastructure Attack 2.0 Armed Assault 1 Business 7.0 Retail/Grocery/Bakery World Wide Video Store pornographic video/arcade store 217.0 United States The Order (Silent Brotherhood) The Order (Silent Brotherhood) was a white supremacist group that was anti-government, against Jews and other minorities, and sought to start a race war and overthrow the government. In particular, they were also against pornography, and used the money from their subsequent robberies to finance their revolution. 0.0 0 4.0 3.0 0.0 5 Firearms 3.0 Handgun 9.0 Melee 23.0 Knife or Other Sharp Object 9.0 Melee 26.0 Suffocation handguns, knives, duct tape 0.0 0.0 0.0 2.0 2.0 0.0 1 3.0 Minor (likely < $1 million) 369.1 money stolen 0.0 The robbery occurred at 7:30pm with the perpetrators disguised as Mexicans; it is unknown if the money from this robbery in particular was used to finance the group's goals, but it was the first of their attacks, and was meant as a starting point to their anti-government revolution; additionally, the group was anti-pornography. The FBI finally brought down The Order (a splinter group of the Aryan Nation) in 1984 with the death of Robert Mathews after a shoot out and the burning of his house, after he refused to surrender, and the other three perpetrators were subsequently captured, indicted, and sentenced for their crimes during their involvement with the group.  10 30 0 217 United States 1 North America Puerto Rico Hato Rey 18.386932 -66.061127 1.0 0 10/30/1983: The U.S. Federal Building, housing the FBI headquarters in Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, was blasted with a bazooka.

 Specifically, it was a light anti-tank weapon which was made for use by the U.S. Army. No casualties resulted from the attack; however, the blast caused shattered windows and frames, and damage to air conditioners and ceiling as well as minor damage to the U.S. Department of Agriculture nearby. There were at least three perpetrators in the attack. The Macheteros claimed responsibility for the attack in a phone call to the Associated Press in San Juan, at which time the caller expressed the group's support for the people of Grenada and opposition towards the US for the invasion of Grenada. Additionally, the group left communiqués which stated the blast was in protest of the policies of the U.S. and Ronald Reagan, who the Macheteros claim, took advantage of the people of Grenada to reestablish imperialism. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 and Texarkana, Arkansas 11/02/1983: Richard Wayne Snell, William Thomas, and Steven Scott, all members of the Covenant, Sword, and Arm of the Lord (CSA), strapped twenty-three sticks of dynamite to a natural gas pipeline in Fulton, Arkansas, United States, at the point where the pipeline crossed the Red River between Mena and Texarkana. There were no casualties from the incident, and the dynamite dented the pipe but failed to rupture it. The perpetrators intent was to cut the gas flow so that people would freeze and start riots, which would ultimately achieve the group's goal of starting a holy war. 1 1 1 0.0 0.0 1 0 3 Bombing/Explosion 21 the fields in the Gulf of Mexico to the Chicago metropolitan arteries, and wanted to leave the African Thomas were eventually captured, indicted, and sentenced for their crimes and involvement with the Covenant, Sword, and Arm of the Lord. Snell's capture came during a police roadblock, after Snell shot and killed both a pawn shop owner who he believed to be Jewish (198311110006) and a black Arkansas state trooper. Snell was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of the police officer, and sentenced to death for the murder of the pawnshop owner, and Snell was subsequently executed in 1995. Federal Bureau of The perpetrator, Richard Snell, assumed that the owner of the pawnshop was Jewish (even though he was actually Episcopalian) and believed that since he was Jewish, he was evil and "just needed to die," as the members of CSA believed that Jews were inferior and were trying to overthrow the US government, who they perceived to be dominated by a Zionist Occupation. Additionally, the robbery was an attempt to gain money to finance the CSA's revolution. Mark S. Hamm, "Terrorism as Crime: From Oklahoma City to Al-Qaeda and Beyond," New York University Press, 2007.
